

Wall2Wall Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: When may I drop off a donation to Wall2Wall?

A: Once your donation has been accepted, you will receive an email with a link to a calendar with several dates & times available for drop off. No shipping.

Q: Does all artwork need to be framed?

A: All 2D artwork must be ready-to-hang, i.e. have hanging device attached. Canvases can be stretched over a frame, photography, works on paper, and other 2D works must have frame.

Q: May I donate prints and works on paper?

A: Yes.

Q: Are posters or reproductions acceptable?

A: Yes, but please carefully consider their condition and if these reproductions would have value to a potential buyer.

Q: Are sculptures and free-standing artworks accepted?

A: Yes. And we encourage 3D artwork donations!

Q: Are there size or condition restrictions on donations?

A: No artwork is too small or too big for Wall2Wall, unless of course it can't fit through the door. Not all works will be accepted and some works may not be on display.

Q: Will I receive a receipt for tax record purposes when I donate my artwork?

A: Yes, we will provide you with a receipt when you drop off your donation that states the amount you estimated the artwork is worth.

Q: What happens to any artwork I donate that is not sold in the auction?

A: The artwork remains the property of SVMA.

Q: Who should I contact if I have a question about my donation or the auction and I don't see it answered here?

A: If you have questions about artwork submission or have technical difficulties submitting artwork form or image, please email wall2wall@svma.org.
